Check out this simple guide to replacing your Sentry Safe key and keep your valuables safe. Find Your Safe's Serial Number and Model Number Sentry Safe replacement keys are available at a variety of distributors across the United States and in Europe. These keys are not hard to find, but you'll need to begin the process by first finding your safe model number and serial number. To get started, first determine which type of safe you own. Sentry offers depository safes, lock boxes, floor safes, chest or file safes and fire safes with a variety of combination and key entry options. Figure out which type of safe you own, visit the Sentry Safe website and click on the safe style under the "support" tab. You'll find model or serial number information right on the website under your particular safe type. Explore Your Sentry Safe Manual Your Sentry Safe manual also offers an option for viewing your Sentry Safe model or serial number by browsing through the manual. The product manual also offers contact information for anyone who wants to order replacement parts for a Sentry Safe, including replacement keys. Once you have determined your type of safe and model and serial number, you have several options when it comes to ordering a replacement key. You will also find the key or lock number in this Sentry Safe manual. Log Onto the Sentry Safe Website Log onto the Sentry Safe website and click on "lost key or combo" to start the replacement key ordering process. Enter your Sentry Safe serial number and model number into the search box and add the key number that is listed with your serial number and model number. Choose how many keys you would like to order by selecting two or four keys on the website. The cost for two keys is approximately $30 plus taxes and shipping. Check Out Other Key Purchase Locations Although you might order your replacement keys right from the Sentry Safe website, there are other locations that offer keys cut to fit your safe. Check out places like local hardware stores, online stores and even wholesale stores provide Sentry Safe keys to fit most Sentry Safe models available today. Check out local stores when you want a quick replacement for your lost Sentry Safe key. Talk With Customer Service The Sentry Safe Co offers lots of support right on the Sentry Safe website. Just log onto the website to and click the "contact us" button to choose your country of origin. Then, fill out the contact form to ask questions about your Sentry Safe models, order keys or replacement combination locks or to get a new Sentry Safe manual. There is a "live chat" option on the website to assist you when ordering Sentry Safe replacement parts, or you might call customer service at 800-828-1438.
